Tink's Workshop

A Treasure Map

YOU'LL NEED:

- A CUP OF COFFEE
- A SHEET OF WHITE CARDBOARD
- YELLOW, RED, BROWN, GREEN, BLUE AND WHITE TEMPERA PAINT
- A BLACK FELT PEN
- A PENCIL
- PAINTBRUSHES

Follow Tink's tips and make a pirate treasure map!

1

Paint the sheet of white cardboard with coffee using a flat paintbrush. Then let it dry.

EXTRA:

If you want the map to look old, cut along the edges in soft curves and draw with a dark brown felt pen along the edge.

2

Draw four environments with your pencil (we drew mountains, the desert, a wood and a palm tree, but you can use your imagination and draw whatever you like!). Then color your drawings with tempera paint and trace the line to the treasure, marking it with an 'X'.

3

Trace the outline of your drawings with your felt pen.

Have fun tracing the line on the treasure map!

Tinker Friends

Fuzzy Friends

Now that we have learned all about the cute animal friends of Pixie Hollow, it's time to learn something about the fuzzy friends on the mainland. Do you have a pet at home?

Mice

Some people actually keep mice as pets. And why not? They are so cute!

The most common pet mouse is the house mouse. It is called a house mouse because it thrives best around homes. Still, most mice live in the wild.

Bunnies

Unlike mice, rabbits don't live in the wild in all parts of the world. In some places they are only considered pets.

The rabbit stays up late every night and wakes up really early every day. It sleeps with its eyes open. It eats mostly grass, but it also really loves carrots.

Guinea Pigs

Like the rabbit, the guinea pig doesn't live in the wild in all parts of the world. It is considered a pet in most western countries, while in South America it lives in the wild. Guinea pigs also like to eat grass and carrots.

The guinea pig loves to be petted. You can tell by the cute little noise it makes when you scratch it behind the ears.

The tinker fairies' best fuzzy friend Cheese looks a little pale. Find your crayons and give him a stroke of your favorite color.
